

Wynnwith Flight - Engineering

Stability with Strength

We are recognised as a leading provider of world-class engineering recruitment solutions in the domestic UK and international markets. With over 35 years experience, we have a reputation for excelling in our quality delivery to our prestigious client base. Wynnwith Flight caters for a broad range of skill types including Aircraft Maintenance Engineers, Operations & Support Staff, Systems & Design Engineers and Engineering Management positions. The areas we cover include Aircraft Line and Heavy Maintenance, Aircraft Design, Production and Modification work, Project Management and Engineering Support Services.

Professional and Committed

A major strength of Wynnwith's specialisation is the ability to attract and retain professional candidates with skills compatible to client specific industry requirements. We maintain a database containing the CV's of a variety of qualified candidate types and can supply personnel on a short or long-term contract, or permanent basis, to our clients. All of the personnel on our database are appropriately qualified and experienced, and where applicable have the relevant licences. We source candidates through advertising on our own website and industry specific job-sites for our client requirements.

Trust and Delivery

Wynnwith Flight's Engineering recruitment team offer unparalleled expertise and dedication in providing our clients with individually tailored recruitment solutions. We fully appreciate the ever changing needs of our clients and the stringent industry licensing and operating procedures that they must adhere to. From start up and 'low-cost' operations to the world's leading major international carriers, manufacturing and maintenance organisations, Wynnwith has supplied cost-effective recruitment solutions to the varied and exacting standards of clients throughout the world.
